OFFICIAL PAPER OF CITY AND CO.

NAPOLÉON, O., AUG. 22, 1889

"If Governor FORAKER should be a candidate for re-election for Governor, or if he should name the candidate, whether it be BUSHNELL or anybody else, his throat would be cut from ear to ear.
This paper has no candidate, but we know enough to know what we are talking about."—Toledo Commercial, Rep.

"THE RULE UPON WHICH THE AMERICAN PEOPLE HAVE FINALLY SETTLED IS THAT TWO TERMS IN SUCCESSION SHALL BE THE LIMIT IN AN EXECUTIVE OFFICE LIKE THAT OF PRESIDENT OR GOVERNOR."—Gen. JOHN BEATTY.

"ATTEMPT TO DISGUISE THE FACTS AS MUCH AS WE MAY, IT IS TRUTH THAT IN EVERY SECTION OF THIS STATE AND AMONG ALL CLASSES OF REPUBLICANS THERE ARE GOOD MEN WHO ARE FROM CONVICTION, OPPOSED TO THE PRINCIPLE OF A THIRD TERM, AND AT THIS TIME MANY OF THESE INSIST THAT AS THEY NOW SEE IT, THEY CANNOT AND WILL NOT VOTE AGAINST THEIR CON-VICTIONS."—LIEUT. GOV. LYONS.

"We believe it impolitic and unwise to PRESENT TO THE INTELLIGENCE OF OHIO THE NAME OF ANY MAN FOR ELECTION TO A THIRD CONSECUTIVE TERM OF THE OFFICE OF GOVERNOR." —Resolution adopted by the Fayette county Republican convention, June 21, 1889.

No step backward on tariff reform.

The pension list should be a roll of honor.

The Sultan of Turkey maintains 474 carriages.

The celery crop of Kalamazoo, Mich., is worth $1,000,000 this year.

"Young-Man-Frod-of-His-Tail" has the "little brass god" down—for the present.

The year 1892 will witness a Presidential election and a World's Fair. Lots of fun for the boys.

Of the 300,000 qualified voters in the city of New York 14,000 pay taxes on property and 260,000 pay rents to those who own the property.

Charles Foster is a bigger man than Foraker, since his return from the Indian country, and J. Benson is lying awake nights devising means to get Foster on the hip.

The farmers of this county should insist on Foraker telling them whether he still wants the farm lands of Ohio re-valued in order to increase the revenues of the State.

Gov. Lowery now has the laugh on sluggard Sullivan. The Governor ran his man down, brought him back to the scene of the prize fight, and the court found him guilty.

General Boulanger now appears as a possible factor in the religious movement in France. M. Edmond de Pressensac, in an article in Harper's Magazine for September, incidentally explains the General's relation to a fraction of the Catholic party.

"Mr. Carnegie's protected infants," says the Boston Globe, "are suffering severely from summer complaints. Fifty-five works and 9,000 ovens are closed in his district, while ten thousand men are out looking for the promised high wages. Will workmen's memories last till the next campaign?"

J. W. Riley, a veteran who lost his left arm in the war, was an applicant for the Celinia postoffice and had first class indorsement. The administration refused to recognize him and appointed John W. McKee, who never was in the army. When the Republican party weeps for the soldiers it sheds only crocodile tears.

An office-subsidized journal deals out some apocryphic taffy to President Harrison in the assurance that "the great masses of the people are thoroughly with him in his manly battle against the bad elements" in his party. The President is certainly in need of consolation for the thorough thrashing which the "bad elements" gave him in the recent triumph of the Mahone machine in Virginia, the Pitkin and Warmoth gang in Louisiana and the Quay cohorts in Pennsylvania.

Sullivan will now have an opportunity to knock out a year in the Mississippi penitentiary.

The colored people of the State are organizing against Foraker, and hundreds will knife him on election day, to repay him for his bad treatment of the black race.

According to Mississippi laws Sullivan can be leased by the State to a private individual, who must pay the State $9 per week for his services. Sully will doubtless have no difficulty in finding some one who wants his services.

Think of it, our Republican farmer's wife, it takes a pound of butter to pay for a pound of sugar under this Protection-Harrison administration! The "Protection" the Republican party gives to the farmer is it compels him to sell in the cheapest market and buy in the dearest, or in other words, the farmer receives a lower price for what he has to sell and is forced to pay a higher price on what he is compelled to buy! Our farmer friends, would it not be wise to investigate into this state of affairs?

The Republicans of the 11th Senatorial district have got themselves into the soup, and the soup is boiling hot. They held a convention last week, got into a wrangle, dividing into two factions, each nominating a candidate. And so the matter stands. The district comprises the counties of Clark, Champaign and Madison. This is but another sample of Republican harmony. If this thing goes on, before four years rolls around who knows but that their "harmony" may assassinate another President!

Dr. Brown-Sequard's "elixir" is creating a large amount of excitement in different parts of the United States. What's the matter with our physicians giving it a trial here in Napoleon?—Signal.

Well, Bro. Belknap, they have only been waiting for a verification of the reported cure in question; should these wonderful reports prove true, other parts of the sheep might be utilized for similar purposes, for example the brain. A fluid extract of sheep's brain might be used to invigorate the dormant faculties of certain credulous editors.

It seems incredible, but the Pittsburg Dispatch, a newspaper independent in politics, publishes a circumstantial account showing that the domestic affairs of the White House are managed on parsimonious principles, that the Harrisons are stingy to the last degree, that the servants have to go outside to get enough to eat and that on his return to Washington the President of the United States is likely to be sued by his cook for wages. This makes it appear that Harrison is small in soul as well as stature.—Plain Dealer.

The electric cat-killer is the invention of a Southern Ohio man, which is destined to relieve the world of its most persistent slumber destroyer. It is simply a hole in the fence at a convenient height for kitty to squeeze through. Electricity guards the aperture, and the cat who pokes her head into it is sent at once to the great beyond. Sil-bey is the name of the inventor, and a gold medal awaits him at this office if he will do away with that other thief of sleep, the small dog, who bays the moon these August nights from the neighbor's back yard.

Many farmers in Seneca and the north part of Crawford counties are planting soap nipples along the highways. This is an improvement that if followed up by other real estate owners in years promises to enhance this section of the country above all others.
Our farmers, almost to a man, have fine buildings and neat farms, and if they now line the highways on both sides with lovely shade trees it will greatly enhance their farms and fascinate the eye of every stranger.
The trees are being planted about two rods apart. Let farmers in Henry county follow the example of their Seneca and Crawford brethren. They will never regret it.

See the man:
He has his shovel on his shoulder and is going to his work.

He gets $1.25 a day.

But some days he can't get any work to do, and some days again he isn't able to work.

He has a family to support and rent to pay, and his lot in life is a hard one—much harder than it ought to be—and it is no wonder that he sometimes feels discouraged.

What political party is it, now, that necassitates upon taxing this man upon the necessaries of life in order that rich corporations and greedy combines may flourish?

It is the Republican party.

Why does any laboring man vote the Republican ticket?

Because he is persuaded to do so by men who have gained his confidence only to betray him.—Bellefontaine Examiner.

The following editorial from the Ottawa (Canada) Citizen sounds like the "Blas-phemed Britishers" were itching for another spanking, administered by the strong hand of Uncle Sam. If they insist they must be accommodated:

"If the present government at Washington fails to bring about serious complications between the imperial government and the United States, it will not be because of effort.
It has been put forth to produce no undesirable result. The truth is that statesmen of the calibre of Webster and Clay do not now reach maturity on the southern portion of this continent. Peddling politicians, seeking after notoriety, professors of brag and distinction appear to have monopolized all places of importance and are now intent upon forcing issues with this country, whose people are rapidly learning to despise, not fear them.
The recent shameful act of piracy committed upon a Canadian vessel in Behring sea is absolutely unjustifiable and has only one redeeming feature, namely, that it will bring the whole question under consideration, and the Washington authorities will be obliged to apologize as well as recompense the owners of the vessels they interfered with. If this is not done, what is left of Yankee naval effects will probably disappear from more seas than Behring."

The New York Tribune, the leading Republican paper, is authority for this brutal and unpatriotic paragraph:

"The awful suggestion is made that Brown-Sequard's elixir of life may be administered to our vast army of pensioners. The country is grateful to its defenders and wants to pension them liberally, but the prospect that they may live two or three hundred years, drawing their pensions every quarter day with all the vigor of youth, is enough to turn the hair of the tax payer gray. No, if the pensioners are inoculated, the rest of us must have a double dose."

Democratic State Convention

At Dayton, Ohio, on Tuesday and Wednesday, August 27 and 28, A. D. 1889.

HEADQUARTERS
DEMOCRATIC CENTRAL COMMITTEE, Dayton, Ohio, July 15, 1889.

The Democrats of Ohio are hereby notified to meet in delegate convention, at Dayton, Ohio, on Tuesday and Wednesday, August 27 and 28th, 1889, to nominate candidates for Governor, Lieutenant-Governor, Judge of the Supreme Court, Treasurer, Attorney General, Member of Board of Public Works, Clerk of Supreme Court and State Commissioner of Common Schools.

On Tuesday evening, August 27, at 8 o'clock, the delegates from each Congressional District will meet and select a Vice President and Assistant Secretary and one member of each of the several committees. The convention will meet on Wednesday, August 28, at 10 o'clock a. m. The basis of representation will be one delegate for every 500 votes and one for every fraction of 250 votes and over, cast for Grover Cleveland for President in 1880.

By order of the Democratic State Central Committee.

JAMES A. NORTON, Chairman.

JOSEPH F. WALL, Secretary.

Under the above apportionment the several counties of Northwestern Ohio will be entitled to the following vote:

Counties.	Votes.	Counties.	Votes.

DEMOCRATIC

Senatorial Convention.

The Democratic Senatorial convention for the thirty-third Senatorial district will be held in the Court House at

Napoleon, Tuesday, Sept. 10, commencing at 10 a. m., for the purpose of nominating two candidates for the Ohio Senate.

The basis of representation in this convention will be one delegate for each 100 votes and one delegate for each 50 votes or over cast for Grover Cleveland for President in 1880, giving to the counties the following representation in convention:

Counties.	Votes.	Counties.	Votes.
Fulton	197	Franklin	29
Hancock	45	Hamilton	45
Henry	25	Hancock	45
Lucas	25	Henry	25

Shelby	25	Putnam	25
Van Wert	25	Shelby	25
Williams	25	Van Wert	25
Wood	25	Williams	25
Wyandot	25	Wood	25

Necessary to a choice.

By order of the Democratic Senatorial Convention.

JAMES M. HUESTON, Chairman.

W. T. PLATT, Secretary.

County Democratic Convention.

The Democrats of Henry County are requested to meet in their respective voting precincts, on Saturday, Sept. 7th, 1889, at 2 o'clock, at the usual place of holding elections therein, or at such other place as the township committee may designate, and select the number of delegates to represent them in a County Convention to be held at Napoleon, Ohio, on Tuesday, Sept. 10th, Saturday, September 21st, 1889.

At 10 o'clock a. m., as is designated in the annexed list, the basis being made one delegate for every fifty votes cast for Grover Cleveland for President at the November election, 1880, and one delegate at large for each voting precinct, as follows:

Counties.	Votes.	Counties.	Votes.
Barlow	242	Franklin	29
Belmont	242	Hamilton	45

Totals 3583 246

The business of the Convention will be to select candidates for the following offices, to be voted on at the November election of 1890, to-wit:

Representative,
Treasurer,
Recorder,
Commissioner,
Surveyor,
Infantry Director.

The Convention will also select a County Central Committee for the ensuing year.

By order of County Central Committee.

P. C. SCHWAB, Sec'y.

JAR. P. RAGAN, Chairman.

SENATORIAL DELEGATES.

The voting precincts of Henry county are entitled to the following representation in the Senatorial Convention to be held in Napoleon on the 10th day of September, 1889, each precinct to select its representative on the 7th day of September, 1889, at 2 o'clock p. m.:

The National Conservatory of Music.

The Annual Entrance Examinations of the National Conservatory of Music, Nos. 126 and 128 East 17th Street, New York, will be held as follows:

Singing Classes: September 24th and 25th, 1889, 10 a. m. to 12 p. m.; 2 to 5 p. m.

Piano Classes: October 1st and 2nd, same hours.

Violin and Cello Classes: September 27th, same hours.

The objects of the National Conservatory of Music being the advancement of Music in the United States, through the development of American talent, applications for admission into the classes of the Conservatory are hereby invited. It is to be expected that successful applicants shall be shown by the examination for admission, without regard to the applicant's stage of progress, and that his or her desire to receive the instruction imparted in the Conservatory shall be the outcome of a series of lessons and examinations. The successful candidates will enjoy the tuition of the best teachers that can be engaged, and, after graduation, will be afforded opportunities of making known their accomplishments and thus securing engagements. The condition of admission, as to fees, etc., are determined by the Board of Directors. The charges will be $100, with no "extras" whatever, and in cases in which circumstances may warrant, instruction in any or all of the branches of the learning taught in the Conservatory will be given free. The course embraces tuition in Singing, Operatic and Miscellaneous, Solfege, Stage Department, Elocution, Fencing and Italian, Piano, Violin, Cello, Harmony, Counterpoint and Composition, History of Music, Chamber Music, Orchestra and Chorus. For further particulars, address, CHAS. LESLIE PARKER, A. M., Secretary.

Meeting of the County Democratic Central Committee.

The County Democratic Central Committee met at the office of Chairman Ragan in Napoleon on Saturday last, with a two-thirds representation.

A resolution was passed empowering all Democrats of the county attending the State Convention to be held at Dayton to cast the vote of the county.

On motion, it was resolved that each voting precinct select its delegates to the Senatorial Convention, to be held in Napoleon on the 10th day of September, upon a ratio of one delegate for each 100 votes cast for Grover Cleveland last fall, and one delegate for every fraction of 50 votes and over.

After considerable discussion it was resolved to hold the county convention on the 21st day of September, 1889, in the city of Napoleon.

The basis of representation was made one delegate for every 15 votes cast for President Cleveland in 1888, and one delegate at large for each voting precinct in the county.

Township caucuses to select delegates for County and Senatorial Conventions, were set for Saturday, September 7th, at 2 o'clock in the afternoon.

Inasmuch as Dr. Munn, of Washington township, has moved from the county P. C.
Schwab, of New Bavaria, was made secretary of the committee.

The deliberations of the committee were harmonious throughout, and the outlook of the county was never better at this time of the year for an increased Democratic majority in Henry county this fall. It only remains now for the different townships to send capable and representative men to the county convention. Do this, and a ticket will be nominated that any other ticket in the county will be as a side show beside it.
